

GDHR Network (CA19143) Call for Short-Term Scientific Missions (STSM) Applications

Call Number 3 for Grant Period III

3rd Call for STSM Applications for Missions occurring between 1 November 2022 until 31st October 2023 (Third Grant period).

All STSM activities must occur in their entirety until the date specified above.

PURPOSE OF A SHORT-TERM SCIENTIFIC MISSION (STSM)

Short-Term Scientific Mission consists in a visit of a host organization located in a different country than the country of affiliation (for Affiliation, see Article 4)1.1.a.1)) by a Researcher or Innovator for the specific work to be carried out and for a determined period of time.

Short-Term Scientific Missions benefit to:

- STSM Grantee receives funding for implementing a project with an international team and gains new knowledge or access to equipment or techniques not available in the home institution.
- STSM Host receives an international partner in their institution and can develop long lasting collaboration.

Providing a contribution for travelling, accommodation and subsistence expenses, implementation of the project, delivery of the report to the COST Action MC and overall effort. Maximum amount is up to 4000 EUR per grant, but the requested sum should be proportionate to the costs and length of the visit.

DEADLINE:

Interested researchers can apply by following the instructions provided below and submitting their application and supporting documents to eCOST by the deadline of 22nd November 2022.

Chair of the Management Committee of the Action - Prof. Mart Susi -

EVALUATION

The applications will be assessed by the STSM Committee, which will perform the scientific and budgetary assessment of the applications against the perceived contribution that the proposed visit will make against the scientific objectives outlined in the Action's Memorandum of Understanding (MoU).

STSM Committee consists of the Action Vice Chair Vygante Milasiute and Grant Awarding Coordinator Jukka Viljanen. WG Leaders relevant to the STSM topic/plan may be consulted if needed.

Evaluation criteria:

Scientific quality of the proposal. The scientific level of the project and how it is correlated to the aims of the GDHR Network Action

The STSM should contribute to the scientific objectives of GDHR Network. The selection of applicants is based on the scientific aims and scope of the STSM application which must clearly contribute to the overall objectives of GDHR Network.

Candidate ranking will be done by summing up the scores of the whole research proposal and its individual parts (see below) on a 0-3 scale (3 = outstanding, 2 = excellent, 1 = average, 0 = insufficient).

WHAT IS REQUIRED AFTER COMPLETING THE STMS:

Once the activity has ended, the grantee submits the required reports and relevant documentation in e-COST within 30 days after the end date of the Grant;

Claims the payment of the grant via e-COST;

The required report/documentation for claiming the grant of a STSM is: Report to the Action MC on the main achievements of the STSM and planned future follow up activities

Expected date of notification of application outcome:

Up to two weeks from receiving the application and deadline of this call.
